Re: Hazardous Wildlife Comprehensive Plan Amendment
Dated March 2012
Author of Study: Johnson Engineering
Agent: Laura DeJohn

Dear Josh:

It was good to speak with you yesterday.

There was another matter that I meant to speak about while we were on the telephone, but I forgot.

Recently Johnson Engineering submitted a report to the County in connection with a comprehensive plan amendment being done in an effort to alleviate hazardous wildlife attractants on airport lands (CPA2011-00022). An exhibit that was submitted in connection with this report, Exhibit IV.C.RSW.5.2., had a rather glaring error that should be corrected. The exhibit, among other things, purported to delineate properties in Lee County which are identify as DRGR in the Lee Plan. In the case of the Alico West site, as you may recall, we recently received approval for a comprehensive plan amendment to University Community from DRGR. Alico West is principally made up of lands within Sections 12 and 13, Township 46, Range 25 (CPA2011-00022).

I was not sure to whom this letter should be sent, but since you are at the airport I thought I would start with you. I would like to get the report corrected to reflect the correct land use designation for the Alico West site. If you are not the appropriate person to get this accomplished, perhaps you can direct me to the right person.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
