Good morning, Veronica:

I am writing to follow up on our phone conversation from last week regarding the above-referenced case. I wanted to confirm your request for an extension to allow the applicant to fine tune the subject request given concerns related to the costs of demolition and renovation of the existing clubhouse building as currently proposed.

Please let me know whether your request for an extension still stands or if I should initiate the substantive review process for this case at your earliest convenience.

Thanks,

Anthony
